Glance of Bhutan (3nights and 4 days)

Itinerary

Day 01: Arrive Paro – Thimphu (55 Km, 2 Hours)

The Himalayan kingdom welcomes you with the stunning view of geographical terrain with snow-capped mountain peaks. At the Airport, our representatives will be waiting for your arrival and then they will directly take you for sightseeing in Paro after brief introduction.

You will visit to:

- Paro National Museum (Ta-Dzong) which was built in 1649 by first governor of Paro district Tenzin Drukdra and later in 1968 it was converted to National Museum under the royal command of 3rd King Jigme Dorji Wangchuck.
- Paro Rinpung Dzong (fortress on heap of jewels) which was built in 17th century by Zhabdrung Ngawang Namgyel who is the father of united Bhutan.

Lunch at tourist standard restaurant or local restaurant

- Drive to Drugyel Dzong (a ruined fortress from where Bhutanese warriors fought Tibetan invaders centuries ago). The view of sacred Chomolhari, “mountain of goddess” emerges directly over the Dzong.
- Visit to 7th century Kyichu Lhakhang, one of the 108 temples built in the Himalayas by Tibetan King, Songtsen Gembo.

Drive to Thimphu for a night in hotel.

Day 02: Thimphu

- Visit to memorial stupa built in 1974 in honour of 3rd king,
- Visit to Buddha point (a huge statue of Buddha Dordoenma) which was built in 2006
- Hike around Buddha Statue and visit to Changangkha temple built in 12th century by Say Nima.

Lunch at tourist standard restaurant or local Restaurant

- Visit to Folk Heritage museum,
- Takin reserved centre,
- Simply Bhutan Museum,
- Authentic craft market and evening time for exploratory walk before dinner.

Overnight in Thimphu

Day 03: Thimphu – Paro (55 Km, 2 Hours)

- Drive to Paro and start a hike to Taktsang (tiger nest) monastery which hangs in middle of the cliff. It was blessed by Guru Rinpoche (a precious master) in 8th century and it is believed that Guru Rinpoche transformed himself into a wrathful form (Guru Dorji Drolu) and his spiritual consort into tigress who flew from Singay Dzong in eastern side to mediate and subdue the evil spirits.

Lunch at Taktsang Cafeteria or Local Restaurant

Then walk down to base point where you will be picked by your car and after that town tour or shopping of traditional Bhutanese products.

Overnight in hotel at Paro

Day 04: Paro Depart (Airport)

After early breakfast in the hotel, drive to the airport for flight to onward destination
